More SNT Benefits

SNTs provide peace of mind to families of people with disabilities, ensuring their loved ones have the necessary financial resources.

Disabled Loved Ones

If you have a loved one with a disability, you may be concerned about how they will be able to afford the costs of living and care after you are gone.

An SNT can help you ensure that your loved one has the financial resources they need to live a full and meaningful life, while still maintaining their eligibility for government benefits.

Special Needs Trust

A special needs trust (SNT) is a legal document that allows you to provide for the future of a loved one with a disability without jeopardizing their eligibility for government benefits.

SNTs are designed to supplement, not replace, government benefits.

SNT Benefits

SNTs can help people with disabilities maintain eligibility for government benefits by excluding assets from income and asset limits.

SNTs provide financial resources for people with disabilities to live a fulfilling life, covering expenses like education, travel, and recreation.

A valuable tool for people with disabilities and their families.
